Unique architectural delight hidden behind a period facade. An amazing house with double height reception room, wine cellars and a 32 foot garden. More than just a family home it feels like a work of art anyone will treasure living in.

GLEBE PLACE

A unique architectural delight hidden behind a period facade. The house has been extensively modernised with no expense spared. From the double height reception room with specially commissioned art work and floor to ceiling windows, the 32 foot, landscaped garden, 2 wine cellars, sumptuous dining room and stunning kitchen this is a fabulous house in which to entertain and wow your guests.

There is also a charming family feel to it as well with a principal bedroom suite over the 1st floor complete with dressing room, 3 more bedrooms (all en-suite) above and a staff en-suite downstairs so perfect for a family with a nanny or live in help. The top bedroom has a sitting room which would make a fabulous room for a teenager or guests.

As well as the gorgeous west facing garden there is also a roof terrace with far reaching views which is a gorgeous spot to make the most of the summer months ahead or watch a sunset over the London skyline. There is also a cinema room for the family to snuggle up in the evening and watch the latest release and a study area for anyone needing a quiet place to work at home.

This is truly a once in a lifetime house.

The house is ideally located in the heart of old Chelsea. It is tucked away on a quiet street just off the iconic Kings Road. There is a wealth of fantastic eateries moments away from the famous Bluebird, The Ivy Chelsea and Restaurant Gordon Ramsey amongst them. The world class boutiques of Kings Road and Sloane Street are also an easy stroll away as are Peter Jones, Harrods and Harvey Nichols. Royal Hospital Chelsea, the home of the Chelsea Flower Show and now the Longines Global Champions Tour Show Jumping in the summer.
